

INTEGRATED CITY MOVEMENT MATRIX

One-page synthesis: TRUST as the horizontal pathway | 6 continental expressions | roles, training stages & cross-cutting practices

Working hypothesis: TRUST gives the shared order of emphasis. Earlier stages remain active as later stages mature.

REGION / LENS	T - TRACE city first	R - RELATE trust first	U - UNITE shared table	S - STRUCTURE pathway + rhythm	T - TRANSFER local ownership
LATIN AMERICA Jose Duran TRUST pathway	City first, not org first See whole city & what God is already doing Spot key leaders already serving	Trust before strategy Listen long, build credibility & friendship Learn from wrong-leader mistakes	Convene right table Share vision, not brand Movement Day becomes citywide table-builder	Cultivar Latam + CLC pathway Train leaders with Four Greats, plans & coaching Process turns inspiration into action	Local leaders own the work Guatemala reproduces in new cities Cities become both students & teachers
ASIA Jerince Peter 5 Blocks	Initiate / Identify Map city stats, prayer & pain points See people of peace and no-church zones	Intercede Weekly city prayer and summits deepen burden Prayer surfaces trusted collaborators	In-gather Bring wider body of Christ together Shared city vision gathers leaders	Intensify Mobilize streams: church, youth, work, NGO, neighborhoods Daily witness grows visible in the city	Increase Multiply leaders, cities & prayer canopies City gospel movements keep growing
OCEANIA Greig Whitaker Oneness journey	Prophetic awakening "You do not love / know your city" God shifts vision from church growth to city love	Oneness tables become love tables Trust, love & oneness are the tracks of mission Stay long enough for real friendship	From "my church" to "we church" Leadership tables embody reconciled diversity Shared mission emerges around Jesus	Local City Mission Catalyst Three buckets: opportunities, volunteers, resources Marketplace leaders help mobilize the church	Unified church becomes mobilized church One church paradigm disciples a city over time New partners graft into growing oneness
NORTH AMERICA CLC + Lausanne Tree Framework & Stages	Germinating: roots + purpose / alignment God's vision for the city anchors the work Platformed ecosystem starts with leaders & relationships	Still germinating: soil + people / relationships Trust, prayer, leadership health, diversity Friends on the journey reduce isolation	Growing: stem + collaborative action / engagement Four Greats create shared operating language Cities move together through compassion, mission & collaboration	Growing toward thriving: branches + leaves Tree coaching, CLC Connect, tools & cohorts Content + coaching + community build durable systems	Thriving: fruit + resilience / sustainability Meta-networks and ecosystems emerge Strong roots support multiplication beyond one network
EUROPE Piet Brinksma Margins to Mission Amsterdam case	Exegesis of the city Read varied post-Christendom realities See hidden church service & where God is already at work	Connecting: prayer + relationships Trust flows from relationship From the margins, churches need grace and one another	Collaborating: shared public witness Migrant churches reframed as missionaries to the city Churches gain a seat at the table together	Strategic alignment Impact research, consultations, exposure visits Use tools appropriate to ecosystem stage	Holistic transformation City-to-city learning across Europe Local churches partner with civic, marketplace & social leaders
AFRICA Movement Day Africa Movement streams toward ecosystems	Issachar discernment Understand times: 54 nations, 1.5B people, 160-170 cities 1M+ Read youth, poverty, urbanization & opportunity	Prayer + relationships Prayer is trust infrastructure, not a side activity Uganda: 500 churches across 5 cities in 24/7 prayer	Collective calling Nehemiah: help partners see their place in the story Accra mission + Zambia Prayer Breakfast unite streams	Collaborate, Curate, Convene Develop, Focus, Gather, Multiply 5 regions, MDSP in 39 cities, city expressions growing	Local ownership multiplies 25 to 50 CGMs by 2030 Uganda city teams, Accra scholars/530 missionaries, cities learn from cities
BIBLICAL CITY MOVEMENTS Nehemiah Jesus Paul	Neh: pray, weep, survey city ruins Jesus: incarnation, discern Father's mission Paul: explore city, find God's people, join them	Neh: share burden, win favor, gather allies Jesus: call disciples, share life & ministry on the way Paul: reason publicly, find people of peace	Neh: rally priests, nobles, families to rebuild Jesus: form 3 > 12 > 72 around kingdom Paul: gather households into one new people	Neh: assign sections, watches, tools, rhythms Jesus: teach, model, send, debrief, repeat Paul: appoint elders, order churches, create rhythm	Neh: local families own wall and city life Jesus: send disciples; Spirit empowers mission Paul: revisit, mentor, write, deploy, global team
5C ROLES Impact Networks + Mumbai Transformation Network	Catalyze names purpose and next win Coach / mentor helps discern the moment Invite pioneers and surface holy discontent	Connect / weave trust across streams Repair drift, bridge silos, make introductions Mentors strengthen leaders without hierarchy	Convene designs gatherings and facilitates participation Land alignment into ownership Create space for prayer, decisions, and action	Coordinate gives rhythm and follow-through Codify captures templates, playbooks, and stories Converge notes into simple tools	Codify, then contextualize Coach / mentor develops next leaders Catalyze new networks without hero culture
LYC 5Ps (training-stage lens)	Principles + Posture Theology of city, place, shalom, common good Shift from church-centric to city-integrated	Posture + People Poverty of spirit, humility, listening Discern trusted, collaborative, boundary-crossing leaders	Partner + Posture Collaborate across church, sector, and culture Shared good of city beats institutional control	Process + People + Partner Missionary cycle, seed projects, simple plans Equip leaders to organize collaborative teams	People + Partner + Process Succession, replication, contextual freedom Methods move, but local flavor remains
PRAYER cross-cutting practice	Prayerful attention, lament & discernment Read pain points, prayer points, times & places	Shared prayer builds humility, friendship & trust Prayer surfaces people of peace	Prayer gathers tables before strategy Oneness tables, summits & prayer breakfasts	Prayer rhythms: canopies, breakfasts, intercession weeks Spiritual engine undergirds plans	Local leaders carry prayer forward Prayer canopies reproduce across cities
SERVICE cross-cutting practice	See wounds, assets, neighborhoods & hidden workers Listen especially to vulnerable communities	Serve with, not at, the city Long presence builds credibility	Shared service unites churches, NGOs, marketplace & civic actors City pain becomes common burden	Seed projects, volunteer pathways, resource buckets Practical service becomes organized collaboration	Neighborhood teams own local service Civic credibility and practices transfer
WITNESS cross-cutting practice	Trace unreached zones, campuses, markets, professionals & diaspora Name gospel gaps clearly	Presence, dialogue & friendship make witness credible Trusted relationships carry good news	Citywide missions and public witness unite streams Accra: schools, campuses, zones, forums	Training, apologetics, missionaries, stratified outreach & follow-up Witness gets repeatable shape	Local believers become witnesses and trainers Scholars mobilize missionaries; cities teach cities
STRENGTHENING cross-cutting practice	Diagnose leader health, ecosystem stage, gaps & capacity Name burnout and fragility early	Friends, coaches & mentors reduce isolation Trust strengthens leaders before tasks	Reconciled diversity, accountability & learning groups Leaders mature as they gather	Cohorts, tools, playbooks, MDSP / CLC / LYC pathways Light backbone strengthens durability	Next-gen leaders, succession, meta-networks & contextual freedom Strength multiplies beyond founders

Interpretive note: TRUST has an order of emphasis, not a rigid sequence; early moves continue as later ones mature. Sources: Jose Duran, Jerince Peter, Greig Whitaker, Rob Kelly & Daria Nardoza, Piet Brinksma, Movement Day Africa, Impact Networks, Love Your City.